

SMALL WORLD - TREATMENT
An Animated, Episodic Sitcom

Created by,
Jim Korhan

Written by,
Jim Korhan, Dave Adduci, Debbie DeSantis

Contributing Writers,
Josh Mahler, Danny Majka, Pat Clarke

OVERVIEW

SMALL WORLD
An Animated, Episodic Sitcom

LOGLINE: A metropolis full of gay, racist, straighto-phobe, politically incorrect midgets living in a backwards city plagued with criminal organizations and a useless police force.

Small World is a controversial show along the lines of other programs such as The Simpsons, South Park, and the Chappelle Show that uses social commentary as the main plot point. It will be known for its crude and satirical humor that ridicules society.

The ongoing narrative revolves around a local police department, a sadistic psychiatrist, a paranoid convenience store owner, many gangs, and related civil liberty organizations. Each story ultimately spoofs on situations that some people would deem offensive.

Structurally, each season of Small World could be 9, 13, or 22 episodes and will be a continuous story similar to that of a soap opera. We will entice the viewers by leaving cliffhangers at the end of episodes from time-to-time.

In Season One, our heroes will consist of a police force that is led by their Chief who is more concerned about watching his TV show than fighting crime. The officers that work under this Chief are a melting pot of personalities. Such personalities include: a sociopathic cop who believes the world is trying to convert him, a K-9 cop with a sick fascination for his dog, a rookie cop with flatulence, an undercover cop with a sex addiction, and a level-headed officer who's unsure of his sexual preference.

SETTING

The show mostly follows a local police officer Tommy Toledo and his “close” friends and co-workers—Pakastani Pat, Dr. Won Ton Noodle, Tyrone, Malik, Jamal and the local police Chief Myanus Hurtsbad. The show follows the adventures they share in a fictional Metropolis in an upside-down world. The city is also home to many gangs, hate groups, and civil liberty unions. Prominent settings on the show include the Police Station, Dr. Won Ton Noodle’s office, Pakastani Pat’s Slow-Mart, and the compounds of the many gangs and organizations.

The world consists of regular-sized buildings and cars, but a majority of its inhabitants are midgets. They go through life like we do; only they use stilts to reach the gas pedal and milk crates to look over counters. These episodes revolve around an entire day starting out in the morning and ending in the evening. Each character will be involved in a conflict that has a beginning, middle, and most times an ending, allowing for cliffhangers. This fictional Metropolis is an upside-down world where being a gay midget is considered normal, and being tall or straight is frowned upon and thought of as immoral.

The fictional town is full of corruption and hate which is the complete opposite of the real life world we live in. There are a number of gangs, organized crime units, and different ethnic groups. For example, in our world the Amish Mafia replace the Italian Mafia, the Hairheads replace the Skins Heads, the Swazi’s replace the Nazi’s, and PEDDA replaces PETA.

CHARACTERS

FIRST TEAM

TOMMY TOLEDO is a sociopathic police officer who believes, in his own mind, that other cultures are trying to convert him and the rest of society. Tommy takes the law into his own hands and blames a fictional group of Nuns for causing his atrocities. Due to the war with the Nuns Tommy has lost partner after partner and many civilian casualties have accumulated at their expense. Though Tommy has created these atrocities, the Chief-of-Police has high regards for Tommy. When Tommy is not trying to be “a good guy”, he’s romantically linked to a local business owner, Pakistani Pat.

DR. WON TON NOODLE is a residential psychiatrist to the police force. He specifically likes to bring in patients who he can make fun of and use their mental and psychiatric issues as a sick form of entertainment. He also has a childish tendency to harass Pakistani Pat in order to win the love and affection of Tommy Toledo. He likes to surround himself with an entourage of weirdo’s and misfits to do his dirty work and boost his ego.

PAKISTANI PAT is an overbearing, co-dependent individual who owns a convenience store. Pat often has explosive episodes of panic due to the danger of Tommy Toledo’s job. Pat is thrifty and will go out of his way to save a buck by re-wrapping expired meats, painting rotted fruits and vegetables to look new, selling chalk and water mixtures known as “milk”, and hiring a young Polish boy who will work for buttons instead of money.

CHIEF MYANUS HURTSBAD has a bad case of ADHD and speaks relatively like J. Jonah Jameson, which is so fast it is hard to understand him. The Chief is addicted to his favorite television show All My Chocolate, which is essentially a show within a show about a gay black couple living the in South with frequent guest celebrities appearing such as Colin Powell and Billy Dee Williams. He only likes to work during the commercial breaks and more times than not he’s interrupted by either by an officer or a breaking news story which greatly annoys him.

SECOND TEAM

JAMAL is an undercover police officer who never looks anything like the criminal he is supposed to portray. His current relationship with Bla Bla is on the rocks because of his sex addiction that finds himself in the closet more often than not. He also finds creative ways of sending Bla Bla to the hospital with anal trauma. He obsesses over the artist Prince, and will go out of his way to dress, act, and speak like him.

TYRONE is a good, yet level-headed cop who seems to have conflicted feelings as to if he is straight or not. Unbeknownst to even him, Tyrone finds himself to be the only officer on the force who has never been romantically involved and he makes sure that he does not let anyone know of his sexual feelings.

MALIK is Tyrone's partner on the force and best friend. He is completely overweight with an obnoxiously tall, box haircut. He has an unusually close relationship to his K-9 Daschund Chipper.

GUS is an overweight rookie cop who suffers from continuous flatulence. He was brought on as personal security for Tommy due to the recent string of Nun attacks.

WARSAW is the dim-witted employee of Pakistani Pat who works for buttons, and is a self-proclaimed Jeopardy Champion. He is not the brightest bulb and is often times taken advantage of by Pat, the customers, and the government.

EVIL ORGANIZATIONS

THE SWAZI'S agenda is to rid society of digital watches.

BDOLF SHISTLER is the leader of the Swazi's, and resembles a blonde Adolf Hitler but is more eccentric. While his goal is to rid the world of digital watches, his addiction to butter can sometimes interfere with that goal and put both him and his men in hot water with the Amish Mafia.

SGT JEWBACCA is Bdolf's extremely hairy right-hand man, as well as the eyes and ears of the organization during Bdolf's time in exile or butter binge.

THE AMISH MAFIA has many sources of income that includes the butter trade, raising barns, and plow racing. Buggies are their mode of transportation and muskets are their form of weaponry.

THE AMISH FATHER resembles Don Vito Corleone and is the incoherent leader who has a big "A" on his chest, similar to Jor El from Superman.

GABRIEL is one of the Amish Father's two main goons who help control the butter trade. He has the Vincent Vega mullet, a thick brown beard, wears the usual Amish attire with a black vest, white button-up shirt, and black suspenders.

JEREMIAH has a Jules Winnfield afro, a thick red beard, and the same Amish attire as Gabriel. He works side-by-side with Gabriel as the Amish Father's other main goon, controlling the butter trade, but also runs the plow racing.

THE HAIRHEADS are a group of 80's glamour rockers, who go out of their way to play video games, eat pizza, and target minority cultures that don't live their fun, laid-back lifestyle. Their goal is to intimidate and eliminate and are willing to do anything it takes to achieve that goal. They are known for using such weapons as mascara chucks and giant cans of hairspray.

C.C. DEVILLE is the fearless leader who speaks in a high-pitched voice and will burst into tune occasionally for emphasis of certain words.

RICK ALLEN, the enforcer of the organization and has a stump for an arm with a drum stick in it along with a miniature drum strapped to his back. As the muscle, he is willing to do anything to keep C.C. Deville happy.

C.C.C. disguises themselves in black robes with black, pointy hoods. They hate everyone and have no direction. They intimidate their victims by using frozen crosses and mumbling under their hoods. Members themselves have no idea why they hate these people, they just follow their leader.

DUKE DAVID is the leader of the C.C.C. who has a secret admiration for all the culture minorities which embarrasses him. He brainwashed his group of followers into carrying out this hatred. He is normally not understood because of the mumbling, but when he lifts his hood, he talks in black 80's jive.

MR. X'S DESIGNER CLOTHES WEARING IMMIGRANTS have monopolized the slave trade. They carry Uzi's and wear Armani suits. They are mistaken for being nice Immigrants, but their main source of income is through the slave and drug trade. They are led by the mysterious "Mr. X".

CHOW MEIN is the face of Mr. X's army, and known as the head liaison. He passes along all of Mr. X's decisions.

SGT TSO is the underling to Chow Mein, also known to be the muscle and brains of the group.

NATION OF ALBINO'S is a strong, influential group that is easily offended and uses "Albino Rights" as a cover-up to censor everything they don't agree with. There are four men who will do things to get attention for them and not care about their community.

LOUIS FARAFROST is the leader of this organization, wants to rid the world of television and radio programs that he deems as offensive. He's always looking for donations from his followers, which consist of the poor members of the Albino community, to support his fashion habits that include his tailored cream suits.

MALCOM Z is an old, narcoleptic cronie who speaks like William Shatner and makes no sense.

JESSIE FAGSTON uses alleged Albino racism to obtain his goals, such as wanting to rid the world of offensive video games and anything that has to do with fun. He is in direct conflict with the Hairheads.

OWL FARTON is a compulsive, overweight liar who's confined to a wheelchair. His agenda is to rid the world of food and lay with as many chubby-chasing men as he can.

THE ESKIMO WORLD ORDER (E.W.O.) a misunderstood organization consisting of peaceful, laid-back surfers that has a small group of bandits who go against this order and gives the E.W.O. a bad reputation. They walk around in parkas, carry surfboards, and talk in a Hawaiian surfer language.

MAGNUM SELLECK resembles Tom Selleck with chest hair sticking out of his parka and is the elder leader of the Eskimo World Order.

PATRICK SCHAYZE is secretly the leader of a rebellious group of Eskimos who rob banks, surf, and run around disguised as former First Ladies.

THESE CHARACTERS POP IN FROM TIME TO TIME

WHEELCHAIR WILLIE a disabled war veteran who is confined to a wheelchair. He is constantly insulted and abused by the other members of society.

LITTLE FLOWER FAG a flamboyant man, who resembles Donald Trump, owns almost every business in town. He has his own TV show called “Your Hired” and has raised the ire of Tommy Toledo who thinks Little Flower Fag wants to take over the world and spread his Straightness.

KONNAN & JUVENTUD are partners in the police district and happen to be the arch-enemy of Tyrone and Malik who they feel are holding them back from becoming Mounties. They are proud Canadians who wear sombreros, ponchos, and share a K-9 Chihuahua named Taco.

BLA BLA is Jamal’s love interest. His only words are BLA BLA and only Jamal understands him. He will never appear on screen, he is mostly just heard by way of phone conversations.

EPISODES (SHORT SYNOPSIS)

Episode 1

- The organization of PEDDA (People Eagerly Devouring Animals) kidnaps Chipper and Taco sending the police force on a mission to find them before they are eaten.
- The Swazi Leader, Bdolf Shistler, goes into hiding after starting a war with the Amish Mafia over butter and cows.
- Tommy Toledo gets a fourth new partner in three weeks who he believes is too good to be true and later finds out it was.

Episode 2

- The Hairheads random act of violence throughout the city causes the Chief to get personally involved as he bargains uninterrupted TV time of his show for an Atari 7800.
- Won Ton has his blind receptionist attempt to retrieve a bologna stick from the sleeping Malcom Z's mouth using various techniques.
- The Nation of Albinos uses Tommy as a scapegoat when they protest the various media.

Episode 3

- A bored Won Ton sends Duke David on a mission to find butter in hopes that he will find Bdolf and push his problems off on him.
- After another citizen is killed at the hands of the Nuns, Tommy and Jamal are forced to take a lie detector test.
- The Canadian Police Officers, Juventud and Konnan, challenge Tyrone and Malik to a "Battle of the Dogs" on the David Letterman Show.
- An immigrant slave dressed in a potato sack is running from his captors while destroying Pat's store.

Episode 4

- The Chief forces Jamal to go undercover as a Straight person even though he finds it immoral.
- Tommy gets a new partner who has a flatulence problem and he uses that as a lethal weapon against the Straight people who he feels are trying to convert them.
- Malik tries to help Chipper through his doggie depression; Jamal finds risqué doggie photos.
- Pat hires a Jeopardy champion who would rather accept buttons than a paycheck.

Episode 5

- The Chief dispatches his troops to various German hang outs in order to find a German assassin before he reaches his target.
- Tommy and Pat seek couple's therapy with Dr. Won Ton and it ends up having reverse affects.
- Warsaw is left in charge of Pat's store and, in an attempt to take advantage of the most amazing deal on buttons, he leaves the store locking Rodney Queen inside unattended.
- The Chief sends Gus out to get chicken soup from Pat's store. Rodney Queen plus a straw, equals mission accomplished.

Episode 6

- Tommy's shooting of an Albino is caught on tape and the Albino Leaders, who could care less about the murder, use that as an excuse to hold a Million Albino March to cancel various TV programs they deem offensive.
- The Chief uses bleach to send Jamal undercover as an Albino in order to gain inside information on the March.
- The Hate Group Leaders Bdorf Shistler, C.C. Deville, and Duke David are trying to form an alliance but their differences halt the process which sends them to Won Ton in hopes that he will be able to alleviate their burden.
- Malik is worried about Tryone's naivety, so he takes him to an expert on cultural matters.
- Tommy and Gus attempt to drop the "Big Ass Bomb" on the Albino Protest March.

Episode 7

- When the Amish Mafia catches wind of Canadians being hired for contracting work, they go around intimidating anyone who does not "employ thy services".
- Little Flower Fag (LFF) opens a store right next to Pat and is trying to take over his business; Tommy just sees him as a converter and vows to make LFF's life miserable.
- Jamal and Bla Bla seek Won Ton's help to figure out their relationship troubles, but a fascinated Won Ton tries to figure out how Jamal can understand Bla Bla.

Episode 8

- Tommy “accidentally” kills a bunch of Mr. X’s slaves; which in turn Mr. X declares war on the entire police force with the exception of Tommy.
- Won Ton calls the Health Department on Slow Mart, so Pat and Warsaw go out of their way to make sure the store passes inspection.
- The Chief has Tyrone & Malik escort the mayor of San Francisco around town; Malik is flabbergasted when he starts talking about sexual exploits with his wife.
- Won ton shows sympathy for an Albino patient, which he calls Mr. Snowy, so he hires him in order to make fun of him whenever he wants.

Episode 9

- The Chief sends Jamal undercover as an Amish Gangster with the Amish Slayer, Crockett Tubbs.
- After finding out that there is a war going on between the Amish and Mr. X, the police force tries to figure out what to do.
- Jamal learns about the secretive nature of the Amish Plow Races, and how the war with Mr. X is affecting the slaves who drive the plows.

Episode 10

- Tommy and Gus interrogate Little Flower Fag for trying to convert the world during the Straight Pride Parade.
- The Chief puts his officers on high alert because he doesn’t want his show interrupted during the parade.
- Pat has a problem when a local Frenchman moves into his parking lot providing mouth-watering wieners.

Episode 11

- A handicap protest breaks-out causing Tommy and Gus to try and thwart the celebration before any of the handicapped can convert them.
- Malik’s heart is broken when he finds Chipper mounting an elephant at the zoo.
- Pat and Won Ton have a hard time coming up with the perfect time and place to which they can battle to the death over the love and affection of Tommy Toledo.

Episode 12

- With President Obino in town, Warsaw creates town-wide panic when he borrows Pat's U-Haul truck.
- Won Ton convinces the Chief to set up a meeting with Tommy which Won Ton makes it a dinner date.
- Jamal is sent undercover as an Eskimo to try and catch the First Lady Bandits lead by Patrick Schayze.

Episode 13

- Won Ton Noodle hires a bunch of different gangs to kidnap Tommy, but instead they try to extract revenge on him.
- Tyrone goes undercover in place of Jamal, and finds himself in the closet.
- Louis Farafrost gets the TV network to cancel All My Chocolate.
- Won Ton convinces Bdolf that he can buy his butter from the Amish Mafia again, causing Bdolf to get captured.
- Malik's new partner, Silent Smith, causes a riff between Chipper and himself.